James and Margaret are buried in Cascade. DEATH OF JAMES CARROLL

James Carroll, a well-known citizen of Cascade, died at his home on the Eastside at 8:30 a. m: Friday, after an illness of several weeks from stomach trouble. It was not generally known that his condition was serious until a few days before his death, and the announcement of his probably? fatal illness and subsequent death came as a great surprise to most of the people. It was known that his wife, who is now in Mercy hospital, was quite low, but few realized that Mr. Carroll was so near the end of life's ال في ال journey.

James Carroll was born in Ireland 65 years ago, and came to the United States with his parents when a child. The family settled in Ohio but in the spring of 1858 removed to Bankston, Dubuque county, Iowa.' Deceased lived for a while in Taylor township but for twenty-five years has been a resident of Cascade. He has been a good "and worthy citizen, an agreeable neighbor and firm friend. For many years and up to the time of his death he held the office of constable in Whitewater township. His death bed was notably sad on account of the absence of his devoted and faithful wife, whose own severe illness necessitated removal to the hospital.

Besides his wife, Mr. Carroll is survived by two children: Mary, wife of H. E. Newcomb, of Maquoketa, and Henry Carroll, of Peosta. Two children, Ella aud Willie, died during the diphtheria epidemic of 1881, the former Oct. 31 and the latter Nov. 15. Mr. Carroll is also survived by his brother, Matthew Carroll, and sister, Mrs. Geo. J. Freeman, both residents of Taylor township.

The funeral of deceased was held Sunday at 10:30 a.m., at St. Martin's church and conducted by the Rev. L. Roche. The remains were laid to rest in the Catholic cometery. The pall bearers were James Armstrong, H. H. Heitchew, James Böyle, P. L. Devaney, Michael M. McDermott and S. T. Kean.

Those from abroad who attended the funeral were: Louis, Charles, Blanch, Edna and Dollie Freeman, sons and daughters of Mrs. Geo. J. Freeman; Matt, John and Agnes-Carroll, James Carroll and wife, Peter Sweeney and wife, all of Taylor township, and H. E. Newcomb, of Maquoketa.

DEATH OF MRS. CARROLL.

Mrs. Margaret Carroll, of East Cascade, died at Mercy hospital in Dubuque Sunday evening after an illness of many months duration. Chronic rheumatism was the primary cause of death. Mrs. Carroll was 60 years old. Her maiden name was Margeret Keefe. She was united in marriage to Mr. Carroll about 40 years ago, and came to Cascade about 1880. She was a devout Christian woman and carried her cross with a patience and fortitude worthy of example.

She is survived by herdaughter Mrs. H.E.Newcomb, of Maquoketa, and son Henry Carroll, of Peosta; also her sister, Mrs. Matt Carroll, of Taylor township, from whose residence the remains were brought to Cascade on Wednesday and interred in the Catholic cemetery.

21 Dec Mrs. Owen Carroll 1927

Catherine McBreen Carroll was born in county Cavin, Ireland, May 12, 1851, and died December 12, 1927 being 76 years, 6 months of age. She was the third child of Peter and Rose McBreen. At the age of twelve years she with two brothers and a sister, came to America and located at Dubuque, where they were joined the following year by their parents. Catherine McBreen was united in marriage with Owen Carroll in 1872, and for many years they made their home in Buchanan county near Winthrop. Four children were born to this union, all of whom survive her except Mrs. Rose Moore, who departed this life in April, 1907. During the past fifteen years Mrs. Carroll made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Smith. She leaves to mourn her departure, a sister, Mrs. Anna Pline, of Epworth, a brother, John McBreen, of Sioux City: two daughters, Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Smith, of Ft. Dodge, and a son, Charles, of Sioux City, twelve grandchildren and three great grandchildren, besides many other \sim relatives and friends. Mrs. Carroll \vdash lived a devout christian life. She was a kind and loving mother, and a true of friend. She was a quiet home-loving o woman, whose interests centered around her own fireside, and it is there she will be missed the most by her family and the friends who fre- $\stackrel{\sim}{\sim}$ quented her home.

Those who attended the funeral from out of town were: Mrs. Anna Pline, of Epworth; Charles Carroll, John McBreen, Sioux City; Carroll, Hamburg; Mrs. J. L. Barker, Des Moines; Edna Moore, Independence; Jet Carey, Mrs. C. J. Moore and son Bernard, of Hazleton; Mrs. Alfred Nelson and Jim McBreen, of Livermore.

CARHOLL, Catherine

lives in; he should at least be sure to get his pay. Let us see: The editor of the Recorder, we believe, is postmaster at Hampton. He prints in his paper the advertisement of the Louislana, lottery, in edefluore of the law of the state, and then disregards the regulation of the department forbidding the circulation of such matter through the mails. He cannot be blamed for insisting on being paid,

. The supreme court of the United States has just decided that such part of the prohubitory haw of this kinto as prevents the transportation of liquor from another state, in "original packages," to persons in this state, is unconstitutional. Justices Gray, Harlan and Brower dissented. The decision does not affect the law, as far as the sale of liquor is concerned. There has never been the least difficulty experts enced by persons in Iown, who wanted to procure liquor, in getting it from the outside. Railroads are not supposed to know the contents of all packages entrusted to them, and a box sent by Scheldam. Bourbon & Co., of Chleago, to Earnest Rumsocker, Esq., of Manchester, may contain hardware, dry goods, or whisky cocktails, and nobody but the parties directly concerned be any the wiser. The decision is of no account. The state still prohibits the sale or giving away of the stuff, and that is the important point.
