

January 17, 1860

A fire occurred in the village of Walton, Delaware County, on Sunday morning, January 15th, by which the large blacksmith shop of Messrs. Johnson & Hall was totally consumed. The origin of the fire is unknown. Loss about $700. No insurance.

Mr. John West, of this village, advertises his property for sale. The mill is one of the best in the county; and, while we regret to lose Mr. West as a citizen, we hope he will receive for his effects their full value.

Ichabod Cook, Esq., of the town of Ashland, has a young cow with six teats. There are no deformed ones among them, being all of the usual size, and properly situated at regular distances from each other.
