

Roy Harlow, 1821 Victoria drive, son of the owner of Harlow's cafe, is one of two men that today began serving a sentence of five days in the city jail for speeding. Harlow was sentenced by Justice of the Peace J. Walter Hanby. J. J. Reider pleaded guilty to a charge of driving 62 miles per hour and got a similar term.

---