

up the aisle. That night they were presented with free tickets to the theater where they were guests of honor occupying a box beautifully draped decorated the use of which was given to the bridal party also to extra seats were given for their special enjoyment, several times during the play they were unexpectedly showered with rice much to the meritment of the good natured audience. The bride looked lovely in a white albatross dress with white hat and gloves to match. They returned on Thursday and will soon be at home on his farm 4 miles west of Harveyville.