17 Letters of Administration were duly issued upon said estate
18 on the 28th day of March, 1918.

19 Notice to Creditors has been duly published, the first
20 publication thereof having been made on the 5th day of April, 1918.
21 a copy of which notice was duly filed in court within thirty days
22 after the first publication thereof, to-wit, on the 27th day of Ap-
23 ril, 1918.

24 Decree establishing due notice to creditors was duly
25 made and filed in court on the 27 day of April 1918.

26 An Inventory and appraisement of said estate was duly
27 returned and filed on the 19th day of July, 1918, showing said es-
28 tate to be of the value of $1266.50.

29 All claims presented and allowed by said estate have
30 fully paid as shown by the foregoing account.

31 Said estate is now in condition to be finally settled
32 and distributed.

1 The whole of said estate is separate property, the said
2 deceased being a widower at the time of his death.

3 The following named persons are the next of kin and
4 only heirs at law of said deceased, to-wit:

5 Mary V. Reider, daughter of said deceased,

INSTRUCTIONS TO APPRAISERS

The attention of appraisers is called to the provisions of the law governing them in the discharge of their duty (Part III, Title XI, Chap. IV, Article I, C. C. P.). The compensation of appraisers is limited to $5.00 a day for each day of actual service. The Court will name the appraisers, with the request that all three appraisers act in each case. If one is unable to act, for any cause arising subsequent to the appointment, the reason for non-action should be given in a statement of the acting appraisers subscribed by them and annexed to and forming a part of the appraisement.

Coffey's Probate Decisions, Vol. 2, Pg. 107.

RULES TO BE OBSERVED

1. Before proceeding to appraise the property take and subscribe the oath on the first page of this blank; this may be done before any officer authorized to administer oaths.
2. Set down in the inventory all money belonging to deceased; if there be none, state that fact.
3. Give a full description of all real estate and the improvements thereon, and set down the value thereof. Where the property is subjected to an encumbrance, appraise the whole property and make a note of the encumbrance.
4. List all personal property, setting down each article separately, with the value thereof, including all debts, partnerships and other interests, bonds, mortgages, notes and other securities for the payment of money belonging to the deceased, specifying the name of the debtor in each security, the date, the sum originally payable, the endorsements thereon, (if any) with their dates, and the sums which, in the judgment of the appraisers, may be collected on each debt, interest or security.
5. Appraise the property at its actual value as nearly as you can, as the Court depends on the appraisement to know the value.
6. Make diligent inquiry and find out all of the property belonging to the estate, and state, as far as the same can be ascertained, what part of the property is community property, and what part is separate property of the deceased.
7. Certify to the total value of the property, and sign the certificate at the foot of the inventory, only after a personal inspection of the property.
8. If you require pay for your services as appraisers, fill out the claim on the second page of this blank, making an itemized account of charge, number of days and date of appraisement, sign and swear to same.
9. Any appraiser appointed by virtue of Section 1444, Code of Civil Procedure, who shall accept any fee, reward or compensation, other than that provided for by law, from any executor, administrator, trustee, legatee, next of kin or heir of any decedent, or from any other person, is guilty of a misdemeanor under Section 653½ Penal Code.

In the Matter of the Estate of)
JEROME H. REIDER,) PETITION FOR LETTERS OF ADMINIS-Deceased.) TRATION.

To the Honorable, the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, State of California:

The petition of Mary V. Reider of said County respectfully shows:

That Jerome H. Reider died on or about the 5th day of March, 1918, in the County of Los Angeles, State of California; that said deceased at the time of his death was a resident of the County of Los Angeles, State of California; that said deceased left estate in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, consisting of personal property only; that the value and character of said prop- erty are as follows, to-wit:

One note secured by mortgage, with accrued interest thereon, in the sum of $1200.00. That said deceased left no other property of any kind or character so far as known to your petitioner; that the estate and effects for and in respect of which letters of administration are hereby ap- plied for do not exceed the value of $1200.00.

That the next of kin of said deceased and whom your petition- er is advised and believes and therefore alleges to be the heirs at law of said deceased are:

Freida A. Reider, daughter of said deceased, residing at 244 Van Blarcon Street, Pattison, New Jersey, aged about 31 years;

Mary V. Reider, daughter of said deceased, residing at 1951 Raymond Avenue, Los Angeles, California, aged 29 years;

Jerome S. Reider, son of said deceased, residing at 1951 Raymond Avenue, Los Angeles, California, aged 25 years;

John J. Reider, son of said deceased, residing at 1951 Raymond Avenue, Los Angeles, California, aged 22 years;

William A. Reider, son of said deceased, residing at 1951 Raymond Avenue, Los Angeles, California, aged 21 years;

Carrie M. Reider, daughter of said deceased, residing at 1951 Raymond Avenue, Los Angeles, California, aged 17 years;

Joseph A. Reider, son of said deceased, residing at 1951 Raymond Avenue, Los Angeles, California, aged 15 years, sons and daughters of said deceased and his only descendants;

That due search and inquiry have been made to ascertain if said deceased left any will and testament but none has been found, and according to the best knowledge, information and belief of your petitioner said deceased died intestate;

That your petitioner is a daughter of said deceased and therefore as your petitioner is advised and believes is entitled to letters of administration of said estate.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner prays that a day of Court may be appointed for hearing this application; that due notice thereof be given to the Clerk by posting notices according to law and that upon said hearing and the proofs to be adduced letters of administration of said estate may be issued to your petitioner, and your petitioner will ever pray.

Dated March 12th, 1918.
